You will find attached a copy of the document that we will discuss on Thursday, May 29 from 1:00 – 3:00 PM for our Birth to Kindergarten Online Workgroup conference call.

Please determine if we have addressed the major elements of an online program that should be addressed. If not, please identify additional areas during our call.

Please examine the last page that identifies next steps. An immediate next step will be to meet with the university system chief academic officers to discuss the overview. Once we get their approval to move forward, we will need to identify institutions that are interested in offering the online courses and degree. We will then form a workgroup composed of the partners to discuss additional next steps that are identified on the last page. Please provide input during Thursday's call regarding the next steps for the partners that are listed on the last page. Are there other next steps that need to be added.

We look forward to your involvement on Thursday if you are available.
